

From Reckoning to Recovery: Student Learning During the COVID-19 Pandemic

Wednesday, June 21 | 1:00–2:30 p.m. EDT

AGENDA

---

Welcome and Introductory Remarks

Cheryl Dyson, Superintendent, Frederick County Public Schools

Marty West, Member, National Assessment Governing Board Member, Massachusetts Board of Elementary and Secondary Education
Academic Dean and Professor of Education, Harvard Graduate School of Education

---

Presentation of the 2023 NAEP Long-Term Trend Results

Peggy Carr, Commissioner, National Center for Education Statistics

---

Panel: Insights from Teachers and Students

Moderator: Marty West

Panelists:

Thiago Hardy, Grade 10 Student,
Oakdale High School (Ijamsville, Md.)

Lisa Kopka, Algebra 7 and Honors
Geometry Teacher, Thomas W. Pyle
Middle School (Bethesda, Md.)

Amanda Portner, Literacy Specialist,
Thurmont Middle School (Thurmont, Md.)

Kurt Russell, 2022 National Teacher of the Year, History Teacher, Oberlin High School
(Oberlin, Ohio)

Sean Steinmetz, Grade 10 Student,
Oakdale High School (Ijamsville, Md.)

Innaya Virk, Grade 10 Student,
Oakdale High School (Ijamsville, Md.)